

ADULTS Join A Summer Reading Program!

Read what you want, when you want, and be eligible to win prizes!

1. Read or listen to three books between June 24 and August 31, 2009. Fill out an Adult Summer Reading Log with book titles, authors, and brief book reviews.
2. Turn in your log at any East Providence library to enter our prize drawing! Submit a log every time you read three books and earn more chances to win.
3. Join us on August 6, 2009 at 2PM for an ice cream social and enjoy the company of book lovers of all ages! Hear what books have been hot for summer 2009!
4. Summer 2009 Challenge: Join the children and young adults of our community in reading for charity. When East Providence adults read over 600 books this summer, the library will donate a farm animal to a needy village overseas.

Summer Reading Program FAQs

*Read fiction, nonfiction, (or unabridged audio books) from the adult collection.

* Pick up additional Reading Logs at any of our libraries or download the form at www.eastprovidencelibrary.org by selecting Adult Services. Logs must be received by August 31, 2009 to be eligible for prizes (Borders Gift Cards; Gas Cards; Restaurant Gift Certificate) to be drawn in September. Participants need not be present to win.

* This program is free and open to anyone 18 years or older.

*Questions? Contact Adult Services Librarian Joyce May at 435-1986 or email jmay@eplib.org.
